DEDICATION

To the spirit of Freedom of Choice we dedicate this, the initial issue of "The Pioneer." It is because many people were imbued so strongly with this spirit that Huguenot Academy exists, today.

This spirit has exhibited itself in various ways. There have been the many tangible gifts of time, money, and materials, coupled with a determined intangible vision of a private school to be created out of a wooded area. This spirit can be seen:

in the parents, who caught this vision, and continue to support the Academy so enthusiastically, in the interested friends of Huguenot who, made donations and who, remain anonymous to the student body, in the students who strove to promote by their day-by-day actions a healthy spirit of pride in the school which they have chosen to attend.

Because the idea of Freedom of Choice was held by people who live in accordance with their beliefs, "The Pioneer" is now able to recognize their contributions and record the progress of their school.

The Huguenot Rebels, coached by Mr. John Boggs, had a very good first season. The "Rebels" had a winning season of seven wins and two losses. The team fought hard in all the games but played their best at Meadowbrook on November 1, in the rain.

In the first quarter, Sam Lawson made a 95 yard run to score the first touchdown and extra point. Excellent defensive playing was displayed by Bill Richter and Raymond Bowlin, who helped Sam Lawson to gain 30 yards for the second touchdown. In the second quarter, Raymond Bowlin caught a 30 yard pass to score another touchdown and extra point. Floyd Bradbury ran the ball for a short gain through the middle to score the final touchdown and extra point.

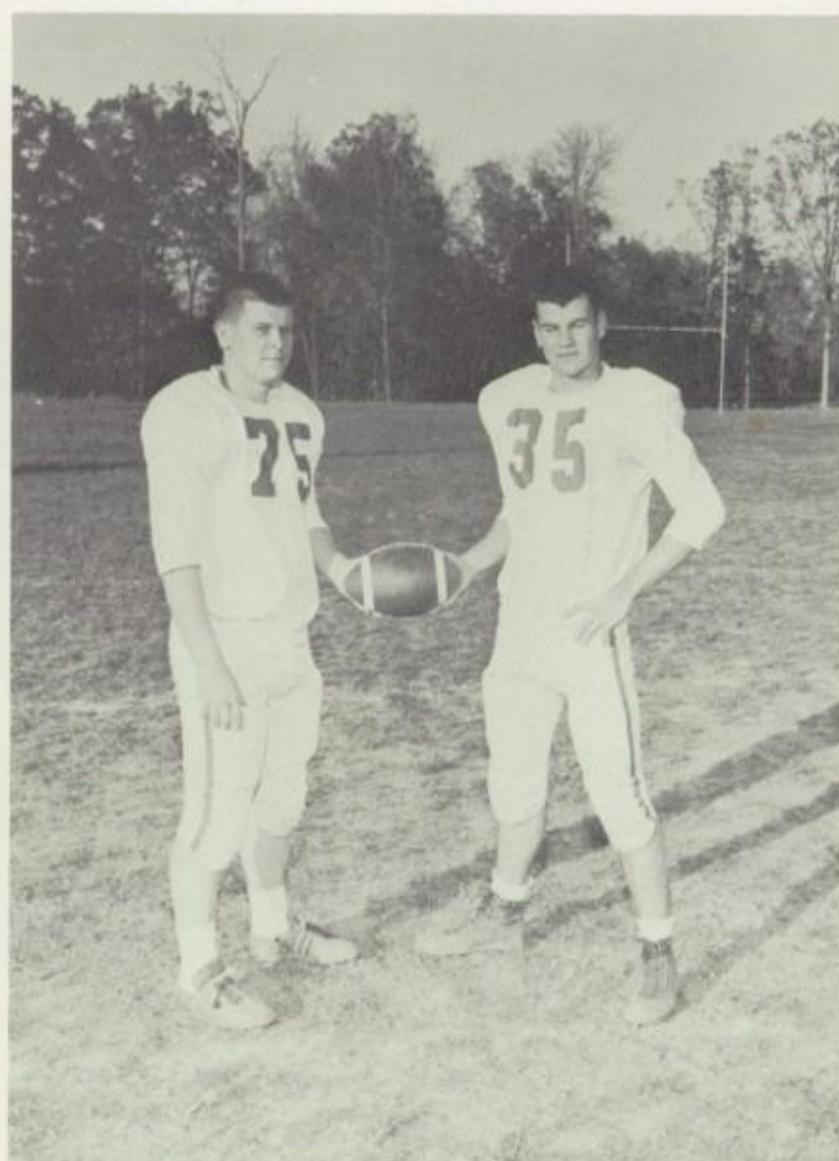

The "Rebels", through their excellent defensive and offensive playing topped Meadowbrook with a score of 33 to 7.

Senior Players are: Billy Richter, Tackle; Gene Utley, Guard; Sammy Lawson, Full Back; Melvin Blankenship, End; (Missing) Floyd Bradbury, Quarter Back; Jimmy Lawson, End.

Coach Johnny Boggs and Assistant Coach Gray Lawson.

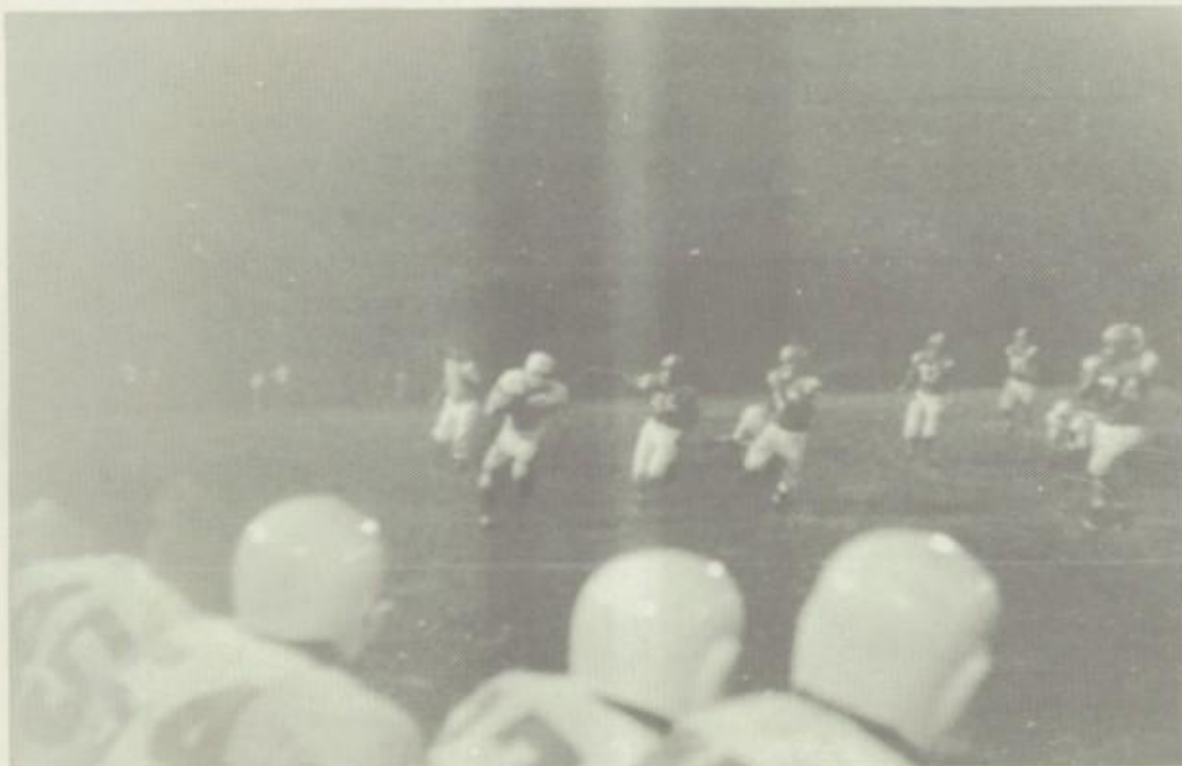

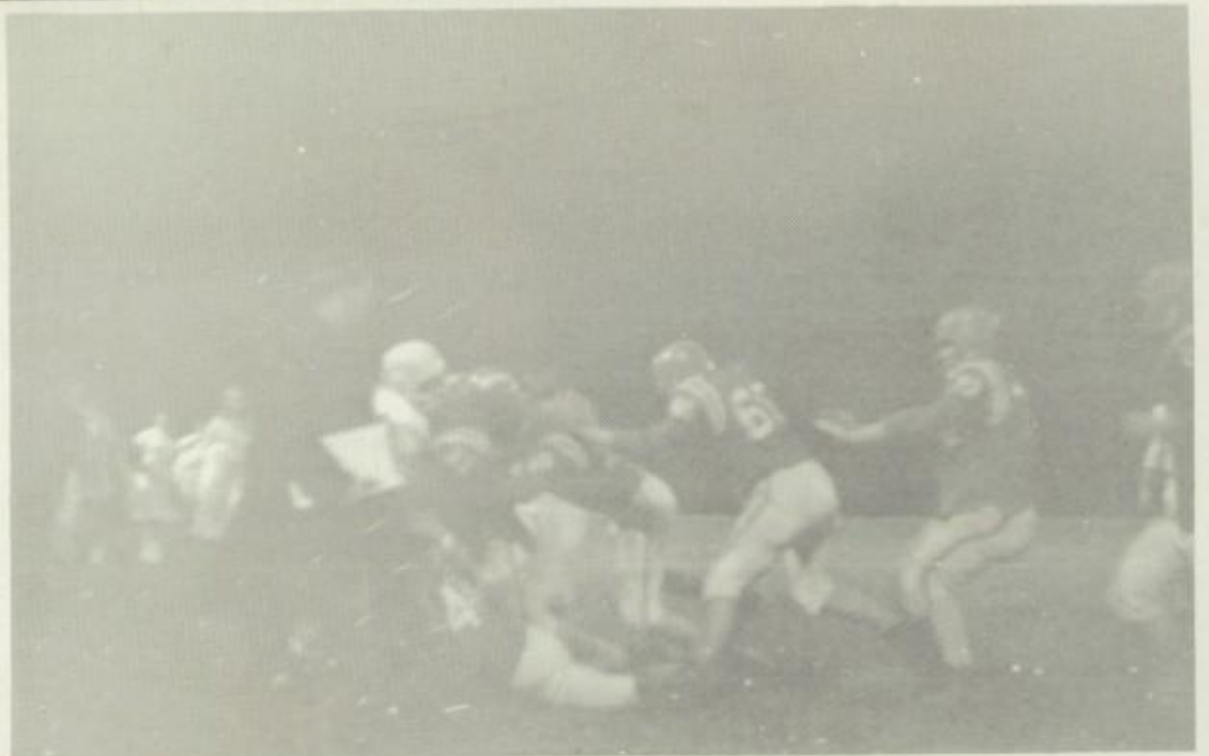

Co-Captains are Bill Richter and Floyd Bradbury.

VARSITY & J.V. CHEERLEADERS

The Huguenot Cheerleaders started their practices for the fall season as soon as the members of the squad were chosen. They were Beverley Jenkins, Jennifer Goodwyn, Jean Graham, Faye Jeter, Chris Karrh, Ruby Clayton, Paige Brown, Mary Brauer, and Paula Banton.

The cheerleaders were in action during the entire sports season. They raved the team on to "victory" with great enthusiasm, and plenty of noise.

The cheerleaders entered the Cheer Rally sponsored by Thalhimers and made a good showing for Huguenot Academy.

REBELETTES & PEP BAND

The Rebelettes are Huguenot Academy's group of marching majorettes. They are led by Shirley Graham and Mary Gayle Hatcher. The Rebelettes have put in long hours of practice to become performers. The girls made their own uniforms which are red satin trimmed in white fur. The Rebelettes have brought much color and spirit to Huguenot Academy by performing at football games and marching in parades.

LEFT TO RIGHT: Peggy Racer, Jane Marks, Susan Mann, Juanita Walton, Kathy Ryburn, Charlotte Welday, Jane Morrison, Ellen Morris, Beth Crostic, Nita Canada, Sandra Carter, Bonnie Lilly, Patrica Gills, Martha Crostic, Carolyn Morris, Jerry Lawson, Janet Morrison, Shirley Riddle, Veronica Downs, Joan Bowles, Diane Reams, Jane Lester, and Pamela Stagg.

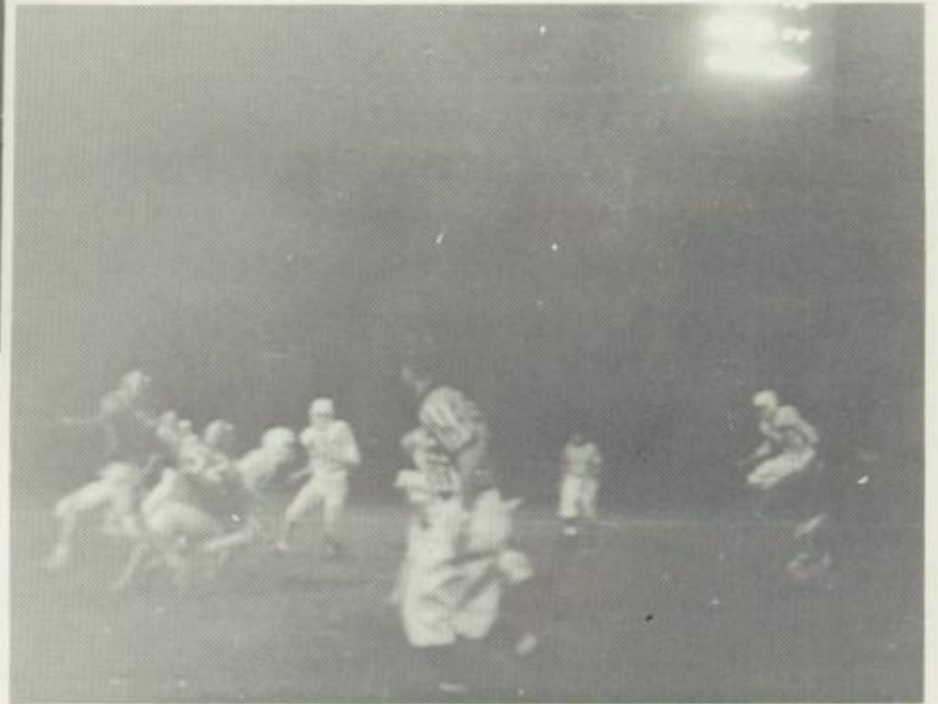

The "Pep Band" brought out the "Rebel" spirit of Huguenot Academy by appearing at the football games and Pep Rallies. More than once the "Pep Band" cheered the "Rebels" on to Victory, but they also gave excellent entertainment at various school activities.

FIRST ROW: Edward Canada, Bobby McConnell, Jim Blandford, Dennis Winfree. SECOND ROW: Bruce Hubbard, Edgar Hamilton, Lucy Walton, Willy Lilly, and Bobby Maxey.

FALL FESTIVAL

The "Rebels" stomped on the road to Victory.

VICTORY!!! 'Rebels' smear Fork Union 33-00.

The Queen candidates were: Charlotte Welday, Joyce Cosby, Beverley Jenkins, and Shirley Graham.

The Co-Captains of the Huguenot Rebels, Bill Richter and Floyd Bradbury, bestow the honor of Fall Festival Queen, 1964, upon Joyce Cosby.

POWDER-PUFF FOOTBALL

On Saturday night, November 9, the "Congo Women" (Seniors, in red) and the "Alley Cats" (Juniors, in white) were anxious to bang heads and knees in a powder puff football game sponsored by the Senior class. Hey, girls break it up!! The girls lived up to names such as "Fraulin", "Ole Stag", "Rough and Ready", and "Whale" in their uniforms of the regular football team, shoulder pads, helmets, and other protection.

The cheerleaders and majorettes (members of the boys football team) never looked more ravishing. Under the excellent coaching of Sam Lawson and Bill Richter the "Congo Women" came out on top 14-0!! The game was highlighted by the crowning of "Miss Football Queen of the Day" - Jimmy Lawson and the "Matron of Honor" - Johnny Holdsworth.

The Emergency Man, Mr. Yagel, is carrying off the injured cheerleader. He was kept busy throughout the game.

WINTER CARNIVAL

The Senior Class of Huguenot Academy presented the Premiere of the 1964 Winter Carnival in December. Many hours were spent in changing the War Memorial Building into a Winter Wonderland. The candidates for Queen campaigned for penny votes weeks before the dance. Proceeds benefited the Senior Class trip to Florida.

Chris Karrh was crowned Snow Queen of '64 by Mr. Yagel.

SWEETHEART DANCE

Carol Anderson was crowned Queen of the F.H.A. Sweetheart Dance by Mr. William Jervey and was presented a bouquet of red roses by Mrs. Gordon.

The candidates for Sweetheart Queen and their Escorts: Mary Brauer escorted by Courtney Anderson, Mary Wood escorted by Raymond Bowlin, Carol Anderson, Queen, escorted by Elmore Cook, Brenda Tunstall escorted by Norman Wood, Paige Brown escorted by Stuart Stigall.

SADIE HAWKINS

"Marvelous Mystics"

Did Sadie Hawkins do this??????

Or This??????????????

Bill Blandford was Marrying Sam and married David and Bula.

Beautifully decorated cake representing the theme, Bon Voyage.

A typical couple attending prom.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

King and Queen, Billy Richter and Joyce Cosby.

Our Junior-Senior Prom, entitled "Bon Voyage", was set on the deck of a ship. Lit by candlelight, the tables were roped off from the dance floor.

The band, the Chevelles, were excellent and everyone who attended enjoyed the occasion.

The prom took place in the War Memorial Building on May 15, 1964, from 9 p.m. until midnight. The Prom King and Queen--much to everyone's surprise, of course--were Billy Richter and Joyce Cosby.

Senior girls ready for Powder Puff Football Game.

Preparation for Variety Show.

Scene from one of several skits given at Variety Show.

Several students from the lower school perform as the "Beatles."

Can-Can Dance gives a fine climax to show.

Some seniors liked their type of activity.

Miss Napier and Seniors enjoy tour of Nation's oldest city, St. Augustine.

The Old Spanish Fort at St. Augustine overlooking the beautiful Atlantic Ocean.

THE SENIORS' TRIP TO FLORIDA

One of the highlights of the trip was the exciting ski show at beautiful Cypress Gardens.

The beauties of the Sunshine State are seen as a cruise is taken through Florida's amazing Gardens.
